

THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT

Regulations made by the Municipal Council of Port Louis under section 100 and 101 of the Local Government Act

1. These regulations may be cited as the Municipal Council of Port Louis (Fees, dues and charges) Regulations 1994.

2. In these regulations

“authorised officer” means an officer authorised in writing by the Municipality of Port Louis;

“Act” means the Local Government Act; and “Council” means the Municipal Council of Port Louis.

3. (a) No person by himself or through an agent shall carry out any profession, practise any trade or exercise any activity specified in the Schedule to these Regulations unless he has paid the appropriate fees, dues and charges specified in the Schedule to these Regulations.

(b) Every person carrying on, practising or exercising more than one of the professions, trades or activities specified in the Schedule to these Regulations shall pay the appropriate fees, dues and charges in respect of every such profession, trade or activity.

(c) The fees, dues and charges payable under these regulations shall be in addition to any fees which may be claimed from such person under any other enactment.

4. For the purpose of these Regulations, every applicant shall apply in writing and submit his application such particulars as the Council may reasonably require.

5. (a) Where any person having paid the fees, dues or charges specified in the Schedule to these Regulations dies, his widow, heir or representative as the case maybe, may with the written consent of the Council carry on his business for the unexpired period for which such fees, dues and charges have been paid either personally or by an agent approved by the Council and that person shall comply with these Regulations.

(b) Fees, dues and charges paid in respect of any financial year shall be valid from date of payment up to the end of such financial year.

(c) Any person who loses the receipt witnessing the payment of such fees, dues and charges may on satisfactory accounting to the Council for such loss, obtain a duplicate receipt on payment of a fee of fifty rupees (Rs 50).

(d) Any fees, dues and other charges payable under the Schedule to these Regulations in respect of any financial year shall become due as from 1st July of that year and may be paid in two equal instalments, the first to be on or before 15th July of that year and the second instalment on or before the 31st January of the following year.

(e) A surcharge of 50 per cent shall be leviable on any amount unpaid as at 31 January.

(f) No prosecution in respect of a person's failure to pay the fees, dues and charges under the Schedule to these Regulations shall be instituted before the fifteenth day after the expiry period for the payment of such fees, dues and charges.

6. (a) Every person to whom these Regulations apply shall affix, in a conspicuous place in the premises where the profession, trade or activity is carried out, the receipt witnessing payment of the fees, dues and charges payable under the Schedule to these Regulations.

(b) Every person who refuses or neglects to produce such receipt on demand by an authorised officer or obstructs, molests, insults or hinders such authorised officer shall commit an offence and on conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs 1,000.

7. Any person who fails to pay the fees, dues and charges under the Schedule to these Regulations, shall not be issued by the Council with the licence provided for under the Trades and Industries Classification Act.

8. (a) Any person who intends to cease carrying on business on or before the date of expiry of the period for which appropriate fees, dues and charges have been paid under the Schedule, shall publish a notice of his intention so to do on 2 successive occasions in the Gazette and in 2 local daily newspapers.

(b) The second notice shall be published not less than 8 days before the date of the intended cessation of business.

(c) Any person who fails to comply with subsection (a) or (b) shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 1000 rupees.

(d) Every person who ceases to carry on business before the date of expiry of his licence shall, on the day following the date of such cessation of business return his licence to the Council. Any person who fails without sufficient excuse or justification to comply with this subsection shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 1000 rupees.

9. These regulations shall come into force on 1st July, 1994.

Made by the Municipal Council of Port Louis on the 16th day of June, 1994.
